Berlin, 21st November 2018. FAP Invest GmbH has been named “Mezzanine lender of the year”. FAP founders Curth-C. Flatow and Hanno Kowalski, Managing Director of the company were presented with the prestigious award at the Gala of the “European Property Finance Awards 2018” in Frankfurt on 20th November. With the award, the seven members of the jury, who come from companies and scientific institutions in the real estate and property sector, highlighted “outstanding achievements” in the area of real estate financing.

Hanno Kowalski: “We feel honoured to have received this prize and at the same time encouraged. For more than 13 years, FAP Group has been connecting lenders and borrowers in the real estate sector. FAP Group also makes a significant contribution to the functionality and stability of the real estate market in uncertain times. With FAP Invest GmbH as a “lending platform” and “FAP Balanced Real Estate Financing I”, the debt fund largely initiated by us, we have created offers for the sector that on the one hand provide capital and over and above that, due to a sophisticated structuring of the financing, bring the economic potential of the projects to the greatest possible success.”

The award is presented by Property Investor Europe Magazine.
